Angelical Schizophrenia

Spirals through the eyes
The ambient stagnated
Crystal bones crackles
The agony emancipated
Lived day as doomsday
Same devilish way as arrows chasin' a prey
Split in the voidful infinitude
Where everything mimics nothing
Timeless yinging & yanging
Frail wrists wrapped in temporary
Always wishin' the hidden meaning
Inside the organ I hear the tickling
As wings whispering for something
Angelical schizophrenia
Too much holiness turned into hysteria

Fields of Misery

Void confronting me once again
She's made of my old collection of pain
Into mental abysses leanin'
Satanic Ulysses devours an ocean

Ran out of sane notion
Trippin' on illusion
The mirror's confusion
Sip the bitter potion
What helps us on confrontation
The hanged bodies in my imagination

Psychotic allegory becomes lifestyle
Law's stale, outta jail inhaling it till my nail
Outta jails of tyrannical thoughts
Empires build to crawl
Nothing delays the annihilator deity of cosmos
Demiurge freakin' us badly
Makin' you crawlin' so sadly

Resurrected as an evil fairy
Castin' frost fields of misery
Displaying in public my exotic chimera
Panoramic hell of tongues of hysteria

Demagogic sadness the cattle's fed
Episodic disappointment but soon forgotten
You sleep with them in the same bed
Little man you now love pain

Universal Humiliation

Psyche paralysis, cerebral meltdown
Ferociously frustrated by a shitful fate
Nothing, if I do it I erase myself
Laying on penumbra awaiting for nothingness

Expressing psychosis under narcotics
Crashin' out, I wanna go out
Time to go outside
Time to live outside
Forever I guess

Can't picture hell nor heaven
What's outside, I'll find it out
Let anything at all happen
But I don't wish for hell nor heaven

Biologic Punishment

Meaningless interactions in every day's torture
Dried me up on dullness and repetition
Let me fly beyond the confusion of human nature
Loosing my way while fallin' on their superstition

Superfluous violence's detrimental to my mental Can't dream properly nor exist too
Floods of ignorance waking up my animal
Everyone suckin' my corpse's blood

Lonesome death, my future and bet
Think it as sad as decomposing in my bed
Flies kissin' me
Goodbye society

Unseen Presence

Unvisual delirium abstracting my meaning
Concoctions of mystic patterns
Waves colliding on skulls in loops
Cyber fantasy of alchemic souls
People beyond the mists
Disciples of Gaia, virtuous pilgrims
Leaping realities, generating journeys
Unpredictability of the cosmic stream
Trance in your mind it cleans
Rise higher, aura of fire
Ultrasonic shamanic rituals
Healing this life on ire
It blows minds and individuals
Stereo therapy purified me

The Real

Pour it on my corneas
Observing your essence closer
We've been made of real lies
It won't get any closer

Inner warcry each day's stronger
We shall not tolerate sh*t longer
Eradicate the greedy depraved lucifer
Erase him on an organic conscious blaster
Warlords reverted from matter
Vaporize them as they f*ck our souls
Shooting the skin with the bloody guns
Bullets but words
Words of change and transcendence
Freeing ya from the devilish obedience

Billionaire's pup
You miss self-respect
Heard you grunting and that's it
Cattle's pacified like sh*t
On old days we'd get lit
But now we're hostage of the byte
Weaponized info fornicating your thoughts
The happiest swine on the whole farm
Don't monologue too much
Keep stupidified as much
Your will doesn't go beyond the couch
You, the real passive human trash

Shiftin' & Unfocusin

Diving deeply into the sea of unlimitedness
Find a seahorse, add it to the collection
Think about it as if it's all madness
Ruleless game, nothing to restrain

Grind those bones, new potions of new worlds
Materialize the stupidity
Comes to me in cryptic
Living beyond algorithmic
Chimera I like to mimic
It goes thru your lymphatic
Liquid of parasitic
Let death become Olympic

I'd laugh at everything
Since I wasn't made like everything
Meet me: "Hey!" Real life ayy
UFO the fuck went in me maze brains
Warping space-time alienated waves

Kali Yuga callin' dear slaves
Let it be enough mass graves
Enough cinema of our disgraces
Turn the blood into green
Much laughs in our screens
All directors are an assassin
Red as profit in the film

Sonic Romance

I love her more than me
Unnoticeable to the iris
Besides me who can it see
This body so mysterious
Without her I don't exist
But with her I hid in the mist

I didn't know the alchemist
With him I still persist
Even sometimes I blame it
But such is the planet

Faustian romance
Our symbiosis on pure trance
Enlightened by non-material
Spells elevating human moral

Friendship becoming eternal
Overcoming the banal
Together transcending material
Do not oppress our animal

Celestial frequency sentinel
Come poetically into my channel
No more birds would be cruel
As a cricketless void's fatal

Born to Feel the Thorn

Scorched by the storm
Don't let me reborn
Forever forlorn
Born to feel the thorn

My Hair's Whippin' Spirits

It invites me to north
Invisible beings touching me
I crystalize inside
Non-things flaying me

My hair's whippin' spirits
The angels found their way
Our mother fiercely rages
Dislocating wings and grey

Dancers of life
Synchronicity thru' the chaos
Friends sharing love
Rotting unlonely under veils

Aerophobia

Aero cages everywhere
Aerosols fuckin' up my atmosphere
Aerodynamics is all they care
Aeronautics takin' you to nowhere
Aerophobia's the perfect scare

Planes where you become short
Plans that you wish to abort

Space Mission

What I might be missing
Certainly I can't see
They're still hiding
Enlightenment found in destiny
Octillions of missing qubits
Cast your net and see what you get
So profound the sea of Universe
Fishing for abstractness
On hope it'll bring greatness
Or more primordial chaos

Lunar Eloquency

High on Moon
Drunk on Blood
In the shadow I felt understood
The white I never stood
Born as an eclipse man
My thirst is obscene

A celestial body controlling me
Actin' on lunar eloquency
Raised by the merciless gravity
She's motherly on her cruelty

Craters crafted my personality
Impacts I'll hold for eternity

Nobody's satellite
Uninterested in tides
Experiencing my singularity

Darksome Mantle of the Universe

Cremation nightmare
On the darksome mantle of the Universe
There'll be none to spare
Shivers from the verse

Remnants of a rational beast
In last we noticed we did exist
But life was hidden in the mist
Of something that will forever persist
The hopeless condition of the beast
We devour tongues on labyrinths
Solving nothing but our screams

The Bats in my Thinking

All I care's the non-visible things
The bats in my thinking
That ones called thoughts n' feelings
This ones which never thought about existing

A Greater Lie than the Fence

Nothingness as the way to escape
Stumbling on planets and stars
Nothing I wish to accept
My clock doesn't count wars
Careless 'bout purposeless
Whisper of a betraying consciousness
Find me on my idleness
A greater lie than the fence
But with it we obsess

Chimera on Voyages

Morn witnessing all deeds
Midday, the contemplation and nothing
Night hugs fantasies of cartilages
Plethora of mirages
Rewind and notice differences
Chimera on voyages

Leap
Inhale
Fall
Exhale
Redo or forget you
Just breath for fuck's sake
Carvin' little lies
Mysteriously far from fine
Proceed your ritual
That one so fictional
May afterlife become original
Pessimism shouts "Noooooo!!!"

What's so real?
We're hidden all
But suddenly like meteors
The veils meet our lights

Biblical Tears

Be welcomed
Dark like cunt
Feel nothing but hell
Shadowy paradise in the shell
I wonder if it's eternal
Tears becoming biblical

Colorless creature devours me
Merged with her you see
Black hole walks the street
You'll get absorbed

Tedious mirages
But lightless became art
Toothless for ages
Never get me restarted
Lord of emptiness
The opus a mistake
Darkness's no longer great
Scarlet deception of tails
Eaten by shady tales
Thinkin' about nails
Behind a thousand veils
Beneath a million plates
Hellish core spins on occult secrets

Frozen Numbers

Should I freeze my youth
Crystalizing on this numbers
An old future remaining unknown
Not bad as it is
Invisible wrinkles for eternity
I'd be a statue and perhaps gladly
Years passing, you changing and not me
You'd be sad and I on my serenity
An unscrupulous lad on everyone's head
No grey from decay neither pain
Stagnated on perfection
Leaving the show early

The Dreamy Fairy

They're all suspicious
Only not you
I'd trust the rarest jewels
Solely to your godly blue

Sickly stuck in the lair
Cuffed with mystical chains
From the dreamy fairy
She heals all the things

Life seemed so eerie
Before I slipped on it
Now I envision it colorfully
'Cause you fell on it

Although I won't tell it
Tho I whisper it
Wishin' you cryptically
Missin' our fantasy deeply

Bloody Bony Anthem

Tomorrow we leap more
The upcoming torrent
Gravityless on material
A wholesome sentiment
Futuristic virtue
We stumble as we knew
Solidified inside them
The bloody bony anthem

God Adorned Us with Metal

Igniting this tedious
Atoms shall rise
Atmos festering as necrotic skies
Sparked up remnants
In future without uses
Boards where I been
All movies seen
Any angel must sin
Truth made me yawn
Self-composed dirge
Sewing bloody leather
Transfigured into ether
Flames surrounding papers
Rewinding only terrors
Fetuses rotting yet I cackle
Descended from heavens shackled
God adorned us with metal
So I decide to unshackle

Billions in the mirror

More than special
The reptile thought
Bipedal crown
All planets it shall see
Every alien stalking
Floating among them famously

An isolated reality
All different and breathing
It's new but a copy
Somewhere it happened
But believe it didn't

Billions in the mirror
Playing the same error

My Cult's so Strange

I expect them to talk differently
Resembling earthlings
Critters n' things
Reminding me the unknown
Exclusively to me
Collective abstinence
No other remedy
Thunder turned into melody
I recognize them but not me
When with them I'm lonely
Lover only of self-misery
Dreaming a final destiny
My cult's so strange to me
Any eyes able to reflect me?

Blah Blah Blah

Blah blah blah
Blow up my pen
Blame all land
Bro bro bro
Burden on you
Bling bling bling
Buy me
Beep beep beep
Broke that shit

Oxygen Tank of Art

I been where
Not anymore aware
Letter after letter
The garbage collector
Self-dissector
Lunatic yapper
Torment's lover
Newborn disorder
A bleeding opera
Parked in Europe
Aurora aura
Play with rope
Dream on dope
Too stubborn to stop
Phoenix on loop
Mirror to shoot
Another zygote
Grow up to rot
Earth's too fucked
Breathing so hard
Oxygen tank of art

Talkin' to Crystals

Taught me to talk to crystals
I befriend animals
I'm lovin' walls
Listening to ocean shells
Betraying heretic concepts
Day spent in my head
Pantomiming the dead

Viscously we fade
Unbreakable's the fate
Married now to worms
Droolin' inside caskets

Roar at the gods
Haters of mystery
Sooner than thoughts
Kicked off reality

Fuck a Pulitzer

Fuck a Pulitzer
Fame's terror
Spare me premier
Postponing post matter
Spotlight scorches
Awarded flowers
I vomit for lulz
Steppin' embers on strolls
Walkin' hell onward goals
Shakin' off damfools
Drowning in a sea of drools
Snatch my priceless jewels

Solo Sailor

Displaced 'tween 'em
The peculiar specimen
What can wonder such man
Unbelievable to all and him

Wishin' a forgotten island
Driftin' freely on the mental sea
The solo sailor, solely fins & me
Gulls now noticing how crazy
Swimmin' my way away from any country
Days evaporating perfectly

Newborn's Peace

A man can forgot it
Make not sense of it again
Might just let believe it
Peace of a newborn man
Less common than not hold it
Wandering through the land
The desert is a tiger
And sadness as sand

Sisyphus Broke his Wrist

I write
I rot
I forgot
Dog and cat
Life's that
Whip
Weep
How to exist
Cycle which the corpse resist

Sisyphus broke his wrist
But still willing to lift

Been with 'em

Been with 'em
Those perished men
In the metaphysical realm
Watching a new old film
What does it even mean?
Still breathing in a brain
Unexplainable to our mundane

Real free will

Am I?
Unreal to real
What did I
Too surreal
New species
To unveil
Unwitnessed oceans
Real free will

Lovely Clash

Lovely clash begot chaos
Hysteria of limbs
Violent tongues vomiting
And no more boring
Secrets are shared
Tagging their memory
Raining warm color
Obey our mother
Who sings way louder
Could an old revolver
Resolving it sooner
Folly gets noticed
Reanimating objects
Taken behind obstacles
Unless 'twas lucky
Meat's stored coldly
Hammer thought it'd funny
Jump off our planet

Sulfur

I bong rip sulfur
Closer to the cure
Lungs & mind roar
Fed with torture
Pain's medieval Sadism's oriental
Bamboo perforated soul
Unstick it not from the hole
Or the scarlet flood leaks
Petals get lonely
Roses rottin' n' weepin'
Shrieks of damned beings

Me so Doomed

Passion turned into dullness
Oracle told it'd work
Not compatible with this blood
Soul exchanged for leaves
Cruelly tortured ears
Crawling in Sahara

Love I shall lend it
Or I go broke
Bleeding, misunderstood
Laughing, me so doomed

Download My Pathology

No glyph's enuff
Tripped to ashes
Reborn as trash
Dragged by lines
Reclusive in shrines
Evoking alchemic hexes

Asphyxia in hells
Walk back on heels
Acid bathin' fears
Edema of tears

Paradise pics
Reality triggering ticks
Day on mental licks
Wings crackin' cages
I shoot 'em
click
Uploadin' 'em
click

Public therapy
Private misery
Spilled thru' binary

Burned Brooms

They burned my sisters
Freakin' inquisitors
Flames their witnesses
Magic spirits rising on tears

How pure is the steeple
More brooms on fire
Cleaning the wrong desire
Cauldrons are boiling
And their sins rising

Souls who think different
Holy voice wishes them dead
Bonfires undressing heretics
As God demands
Torch it up all profanes
Purifying the world as our Lord commands
Those too human warm up plazas

Jane Doe

Burn the ink
Phonetic shackles
The sound of ego
It will go
And who am I?
Forgot to know
Gone and reborn
To Devil unknown
Lookin' for mine
Dark wings cannot find

Bonfire spit me
Into a neo-reality
Wandering now free
Biting not my new tongue
Roaming as no one
Old skeleton under stone
Can now I be who I was
Before the gifted purpose

I'm writing a name
You call me insane
Twisting the mundane
The world without shame
Being my ID
Never had idea
Meet Jane or John
They'll tell you who are you

Dark Flames

Devouring the child
While re-energizing
Solar rejection
Prayers of Luciferian Moon
Fetus walkin' off
The caldron bubblin'
Brooms shall fly
Dark flames becoming skies
The pact intensifies
As Devil's laughs
This coven grows
Flames of enlightenment
Witch meets no judgment
Defying the testament
Inverting the lamb
Strolling on hellish sand
Shattered soul may become none

As if the Milky Way I kissed

The perfect disc
Shines through my mist
Metaphysically burning
Under rays blessed
As if the Milky Way I kissed

Light In My Dark

There's a light in my dark
Awaiting to become art
Will the wings trigger a spark
And incendiate the future into our past

Circle

As the circle tightens
Hours into minutes
Minutes into seconds
Seconds into all over again

The Spherical Cinema

Scheduled every night
Forgotten behind
The spherical cinema
Experiencing dilemma

Kissin' the void
Marrying her soon
Half day missed
Wasted I return

In her dark gown and gone
Quickly reappearin'
Abducted with no permission
Returned as my person

Private Films

Teleported to nowhere
Abstractness & pure air
Where no eyes will go
Private films play so

The cosmos revealin'
Into portals hoppin' in Endless ghosts flyin'
Hidden in dreams dreamin'

In Arid Galaxies we Blossom

As God keeps tossin' 'em
Nonexistence into somethin'
Before I'm someone
After I become none
Was I anyone?

Tantric allegory
Phantom woven reality
Sailin' on veils of mystery
Eternal chaos fathering me

I Witness God Betraying Faiths

Flappin' wings on flames
Skeleton phoenix illuminating the dusk
Blazed chirpin' as apocalypse approaches
Derelict times churning the mundane husk

I witness God betraying faiths
Burning pawns, flippin' boards
Dark incense awakening occult crows
The time of forgotten laws
Only claws and terrific shrieks

Contemplating the bloodiest of all creeks
Where only the loneliest soul bleeds
Fantasizing on invisible hieroglyphs
Their gleam warmin' demigod nectars

Blended aura on sky's light
I, dreaming to be brighter than light
But how to do so without blight?
Accustomed to live in the celestial attic
My trip's truly Homeric
Always sailin' on the wrong ocean
Apparently deprived of notion
The reveries always as Atlantic
Picturing one's self transcending the organic

Perfectly's the perfection

The blue's cryin' again
Wet scent and no end
The birds bathin' in the air
The winter has been here
And the fire's now comin' near Frozen spirits are springing
Grey has gone where?

We're now out there
Simply breathing our air
Else we won't dare
Nor care

Perfectly's the perfection
As a mind travelling far
She travels in no car
Being far as a star
Ascended on blue
Wishing a new virtue

Pilgrim of Non-mundane Knowledge

Once done
No return
Frivolity sprays
Dumbest days
Doomsdays rains
Floods thru' skulls
Where my muse's from Purest'll be her form

The moon I call
Gloomy tastes thru' the canal
On dreams I fall
Petting the wildest animal
Building empires to blow up them all
Non-sense over my language
Lending the mind courage
Get above the naufrage
Pilgrim of non-mundane knowledge
Took you to the metaphysical stone-age
No modern inside my dark cage
The dumbest age of all ages
Who's Satan if there's no visage?

Authenticity over comfort

Grime covers me
Despising any aristocracy
Thunders of pains
Beneath acid rains
Acidity dissolves pain
So I bought a coffin
For my imaginary friend
And let it be our end
My deadliest friend

Make my mind bend
Forget where we went
An old depressive scent
The past'd lend

Diverging widely thru' paranoias
Komodo scent thru' the drums
Cyber shaman burning trash tracks
Fuck alone with my razor arm
Authenticity over comfort
Can sing you 'bout le mort
My systematic manic episode
I get you in touch with her
La femme we all share

Not Jazz but Jizz

Not jazz but jizz flowin' off the speaker
Music as our greatest healer
Manifestation of divine creation
Planting a seed inside my imagination
Obey me like planted thoughts
Giving new life to jaws
Tongues, teeth and notes brushin'
Alone inside the mind and freezin'
I even forget my mission
I was that mission
Unfinished but I'm on a new one
Returning but only to a new one
Life's hands made of iron
Not even bone
Cracking under my knees
Fingers scream as well my hands
Out of any context
I can't find that place
Too long and no success
Last place to find
Blue like sky
Stagnation meeting the creator
Temporary life without perpetuator
Well, my mind's nature
My bulbs are so fatal
Scavenger's on hustle
I need my torturous castle
Dungeons where I live happily
Not taught to love your misery
Anything else I wouldn't be me
I learned to see the skies as the only non-enemy

Now I'm always cold as you can see
I freak twice or thrice
Yet no one can see
On naufrage drowning in frustration
No lifeboat could ever save me

Green ashes

System's cog cranking
I know no lord nor praying
Just stuck in the jungle of thought
Tarzan screams and no law to be bought

Falling epically through a dream of misery
Nothing left but a song of misty dreary
Today we burn a treasury
Falling ashes from the blindfold greedy

Existential Breeze

Do you perhaps are a soul or so?
Cold flayin' me like a katana
Droplet fallin' into the sea of flesh
Hear it vaguely, entangled with echoes of past-flesh
Walked out of the sea, articulated rational modernity
Tell me to climb up skies of sci-fi machinery

Rock 'tween rocks, no apparently purpose
Everything out there's so horrendous

Muses

Deceptive as beauty
She led me to lethargy
Made my mind moony
Existence's now loony
Carving a peculiar story
Of old perished glory

We should've ended way gory
We should had bled enough
Lovin' the ally as my enemy
Toxic winds made me get hell's cough

My Tears into Capital

Sellin' books is such a shit
Survival's benefit yet hatin' it
Think it
Write it
Double-check your shit
And let the numbers send ya to hell
Inflated ego like wallet
Steal my purity and genuinity
My tears into capital, what an obscenity

Turned the Galaxy into my Diary

Gazing stars till I'm one
I shall shout on a celestial megaphone
Cryptic fire on hopes to rewire
Random heads thru' sad rock planets
Turned the galaxy into my diary

Red Nose

So cold I'll write a red nose
Hand in each pocket warmed with cotton
Missin' the warm star that I much time love
The icy breeze turning me into a phantom
Infiltrated into my pale skeleton
Snowman with his thoughts melting

Mother testing her offspring cruelly
The frozen ones are forgotten quickly
With and without their own legacy
The frail shall perish soonly

Real world

Slow world
Primitive world
Dangerous world
Disgusting world
Stinky world
Bitter world
Unpleasant world
Cruel world
Macabre world
Painful world
Unbearable world
Destructive world
Suicidal world
Bloody world
Mortal world
Cadaveric world

UFO Dialect

Sensorial overload surrounds me
Astral beats of cosmic elegance
Freaknetics blastin' cells inside me
UFO dialect so called trance
LFO's, waves, oscillating strangely
Pitched freqs, materialized spirit experiments
The patterns surfacing boldly as oddly
Penetrate deeper into our frail minds
Sacred code of sonic bombs bombing cranial tombs
Randomly ejaculating into the ears
New seeds of believes, love and dreams
Takin' BPM's higher than missiles
Demolishing dogmas like TNT
Frequential evolved creatures
Comin' out and into me
Invisible to many eyes and spirits
They bend perceptions n' illusions
Blood flows thru' the chaos
Mankind liaison with Deus

The Universe Dressed with Scars

We're diggin' deeper into the collective
New geometries and extraterrestrial shapes
Which are shapin' dreams and fates
Like travelling far to Mars
Like a sea of newborn Quasars

The Universe dressed in scars
Galactic shouts from cruel worlds
Pain surrounds us thru' our vastness

Temporarily in my Head

Such a trap our mind
Humans running blindly
I'm one of my own kind
My info comin' brightly

Sitting in a world where I'm dreaming
Reality raining way heavily
Can you ever tell any instance of meaning?
The forces colliding us ferociously
Throw a net, see what we got
A sea we begot
Leaks foam in your arid reality

The slumbering creature beneath the blue veil
It wakes to flip your melancholic caravel

Devours the wet flesh of your bones
Returns you back from where our race comes

Paranoiac Synchronicities

A child was born under this crown
It's colorful and monochromatic
Playing on fields with no scarecrow
The frequencies are aromatic
Freaky wings flappin' freely
Thunders hugging the spirit
Alien codes of cosmic synchronicity
Let tech get the merit

We're livin' obscurely beneath the star
Myriads of unknown fantasies
Torture yourself and see how far
Be lost on paranoiac synchronicities

Carnal Misery

I gotta love everything that breaths
I go down into the core where everything persists
Inside me, punching walls of carnal misery
Inside the trap of my non-physical mystery
Thought draggin' me away from thee
Time undulation inside the inner cave
The skies I dream aren't made of glee
Torturous anguishing paths for a brave
Same reflection on the eyes endlessly
I wish fresh blood pouring hotly over me
My eyes are seeing lies in your skies
Lights that made a madman
Cornea's touchin' you without whys
Could it be my dreamy ma'am

Death as the only mystery

Pleyades playing our heads and bodies
Ostracized from earthly realms
Fishing in another dimension for unknown entities
Heart on moon away from gravities
Love talk to the deities and things
Simple existence, everything it brings

Disfigured when I wrote me on paper
Lost again my old manner
Veils of fantasies covering my mind anytime
Arrows of woes hitting my heart every time

Death as the only mystery
Poetically suiciding my idea
Time ripping me with horns of ivory
Will soon be again a Pangea

Angel's blood's crystal

Out of another mind cinema
I returned back due to my existential dilemma
Beatin' keys with existence's weight
Sword fighting my woeful fate
Punching mirror until ejaculatin'
Angel's blood's crystal
Self-apocalypse still preachin'
Gasligthing any mortal
Evil mentioning me so honorable
World swirls into the void

Boiling Grey Matter

Fleshy visions of a meat droid
My grey matter boiled
Eternal paranoid
Sounds I spit in schizoid
Real life insectoid
Far away from stoic
Enjoying to not be logic
Skip it on flames, next topic
Can suicide be heroic?
Can pain be opioid?
Sounds exotic in my attic
Printing new life in my organoid
When witnessing disaster I'm frenetic
The very end will be fuckin' epic

Not on Earth

I'm an alien baby
In this world of petty
Everyone's so human to me
Like them I tried to be
But a dreamy ayy I can be only
Grasping hardly the earthly reality
Real things I barely see
Inside the greenish mind of an solitary E.T
Burning star powder to connect another galaxy
People callin' my distant creature crazy
Showing them how fancy's my lunacy
Not on Earth dwells my remedy

Alienated Beyond Miles

Mundane struggle feels unsolvable
Shall I fly those oceanic miles
Or become even more intolerable
In my thinking I need new files
Current reality's the greatest struggle
Any dreamy bubble just pops
Seppuku isn't honorable

Bloody fight for life I ask
See what gets and I take a bet
Uncertainty come to me as my test
Don't wanna live as a pseudo-dead

Zig-Zag

Dawning in my chest
This world would rest
Zig-Zag uncontrolled emotions
Controlling my functions
In the far sea of our phantom love
A dead body floatin' in a grave
Bones sinking bubblin' up lights
Undulation's pure perfection
Smoothly wetting the ears
Under exotic sun rays
Reflections of romantic Armageddon
Let it last and be forever
Clouds on fire from the violent storm of passion

Apparition

Why you're assaulting me so suddenly
In my vision there's your apparition
Those lakes of gleaming beauty
In the meadow of your innocence
The birds flappin' purely

Such a mysterious manifestation
I crafted your lines and got lost on 'em
Couldn't roll more unexpectedly
What's now, no one knows but feels eternal

Skies falling over mankind's psyche

The electronic bird's still flappin' wings
Wings are flapped to ashes
The bird as Phoenix
Ember figure casting his screeching
Sacred session on the tree
Minerals resonating through the flesh
Is time temporary or we leak eternally
Probabilities are the new rain
Scratching a wound inside a wound
Garden soul on happiness we coil
Savage soul's back on turmoil
Clean skies smiling at your eyes
Tempest stomps on your dreams
A peaceful sea of tenderness in this mind
An inferno of corpses burning in skull chambers
Mountains torturing each other
Creeks of shame staining the lands
The shadows are alive in their cave

Greatest Abyss

The greatest abyss in this Universe is our mind

Rose Murmurs

Spittin' my bloody tongue out
May be divine's fault
Aloof I present this self
Secretly dreamin' I'm an elf
Consciousness's shelters cleaned
Floating thru' the heavy realm
So blazed you see my aura's beam

Invoke the silent passion
Sailor of underwater mission
Eloquent enigma thru' the tide
The rose murmurs as you decide
